

The OCA plays a leadership role in promoting and encouraging children and youth camping in Ontario and is devoted to developing high standards for organized camping and to sharing information and ideas that maintain those standards.

